In 2018, STRABAG completed the 10.1 km section between Ungheni and Ogra, followed by the construction of a 9.2 km section from Ungheni to Târgu Mureș (completion in 2021). In addition, STRABAG is currently building the nearly 19 km long bypass from Oradea to the A3 at a cost of approx. € 110 million.

When completed, the A3 will cover 588 kilometres from the Romanian capital of Bucharest via the commercial centres of Ploiești, Brașov, Cluj-Napoca and Oradea to Borș on the Hungarian border, where it will connect to Hungary's M4 motorway.
